sintained the dignity of the Department by strik-the dog on the head and "knocking him flat," he expressed it. Griel abused Murray for pre-sting the animal from biting him, and was ar-ted for disorderly conduct.

RIDGEWOOD TENNIS TOURNEY.

MISS MOWRY, OF ENGLEWOOD, AND PARET, OF ORANGE, WIN THE STATE

CHAMPIONSHIP. Ridgewood, June 6 (Special).—The final matches in the New-Jersey championship lawn tennis tournament here this afternoon brought out a large nament nere this afternoon brought out a large crowd of tennis enthusiasts, and the grounds of the Hohokus Valley Tennis Club presented a pretty appearance, the courts being surrounded shionably dressed women and men. There were matches scheduled, and in each the winners came champions of New-Jersey, so the excite-ent ran high from start to finish. There was ame disappointment at the inability of Miss Hoof Englewood, to play off the postponed semiheal match in the women's singles with Miss Mosty, but her clubmate came in her place, and he final match for the newly established women's championship of the State began early in the after-Miss Bessie Moore, of the Hohokus Valley tennis Club, was opposed to Miss Mowry, and won three straight sets. Miss Moore hit the balls is large and placed more accurately than her older mal and the issue was never in doubt. Her name prefore will be the first inscribed on the new enge cup offered by her club.

final match in the men's singles followed imtately after the first match and again the victor m in straight sets. J. Parmly Paret, of the lawn Tennis Club, who defeated the Engexpert, Cranston, on Thursday, was opposed to local crack player, Richard H. Palmer. Paret, the also won the Southern championship at Wash-ington two weeks ago, outclassed Palmer in every and did not allow his young antagonist fee games in the three sets. Palmer became discouraged near the end of the match and played follow: tip women's singles, semi-final round— Englewood T. C., beat Miss Homans, day's score of the complete of Championship men's singles, final round—J. Parm-Paret, Orange L. T. C., beat Richard H. Palmer, chokus Valley T. C., 6-2, 6-2, 6-1, chokus Valley T. C., 6-2, 6-2, 6-1, challenge round—J. Parmly Paret, Orange L. T. heat F. N. Jessup, South Orange T. C., by de-

SUICIDE AFTER HIS SENTENCE.

A PRISONER WHO WAS TO SERVE FIVE MONTHS GASHES HIS THROAT WITH A RAZOR.

Eizabeth, June 6.-Otto Beierline was arraigned in the Union County Court before Judge McCormick day, having pleaded guilty to assaulting James scaffrey in Elizabethport. Beierline, who is thirtyat years old, has a wife and five small children, of they were in court when he was arraigned. dee McCormick sentenced him to the county jat w five months. McCaffrey, who made the comaint against him, was his landlord. While Beier is was getting into the house at 2 o'clock one ing two weeks ago there was a dispute which mided in the assault. being sentenced Beierline was taken to the County Jail, and ten minutes after arriving there is tried to end his life. Saturday is the day on hich the prisoners are shaved at the jail, and line was taken to the barber's apartment to be shaved. There were about a dozen other priseners in the room, and Beierline sat down to await his turn. He buried his head in his hands and appeared despondent. Before any one knew what was the matter, Belerline jumped up from his seat, and, going over to the shelves where were stored, he took one, and, hastily ning it, drew the keen blade across his throat, ting a gaping wound. There was the greatest excitement among the prisoners after the occur-Constable White, of Springfield, rushed into courtroom and informed Judge McCormick. Several persons tried to get out, but the Judge said

Several persons tried to get out, but the Judge said he would order the arrest of any one who left the room, and this restored quiet.

A hurried call was sent for an ambulance to the General Hospital and Beterline was taken there, but little hope is entertained of his recovery. His wife had not left the courthouse, and when she wife had not left the courthouse, and when she learned of her husband's act she became hysterical. Among the prisoners sentenced to-day was Walter Austin, the negro who attacked and attempted to rob Nora Hopkins, a white woman, while she was on a lonely road. He was sentenced to five years in State's prison. Garry Freeman, for burglary, received two years. Thomas Wilkinson and Nelson Sharp, negroes convicted of robbing nickel-in-the-slot machines, were sentenced to one year each in State's prison.

DECISIONS AFFECTING HOBOKEN.

ONE UPHOLDS THE POLICE BOARD, THE OTHER

INVOLVES AN ASPHALT CONTRACT. the Police Board in dismissing John Cavanagh, a policeman, was uphold. The officer asserted that be did not have a fair trial by the Police Commissloners on a charge of entering a house, while off duty, to see a girl who bore a bad reputation. He set up the plea at the trial that he made the call in search of evidence on which to raid the house. The Supreme Court granted the application of a writ of certiorari made by the Barber Asphalt Company, and originally refused by Justice Lippincott, pany, and originally refused by Justice Lippincott, for a review of the action of the Common Council in awarding the contract for asphalting Garden-st. to Henry & McGibney. Corporation Attorney James F. Minturn offered a motion that the resolution making the award be set aside, so the city could readvertise for bids, and thus save time and avoid expensive litigation. The motion was granted.

A LITTLE BOY'S FATAL FALL.

THE CHILD PLUNGES FROM A FOURTH-STORY WINDOW TO A BRICK AREA.

Freddie Mullins, a bright child, two and one-half years old, fell from a fourth-story window in a tensment-house, at No. 79 Monroe-st., Hoboken, yesterday, and was killed. The boy landed on a brick pavement in the rear yard. His skull was crushed, and be died in a few minutes.

Freddie and his mother were looking out of the window, when Mrs. Mullins heard her baby crying in the next room. She ran to soothe the little one, and when she returned she was horrified to find that her son had fallen from the window and was breathing his last on the pavement helow.

The Mullins family moved from Trenton to Hocken a week ago. The father, who had just secured with in New-York, knew nothing of the accident until he returned home after his day's labor.

A RUTGERS REVOLT EXAGGERATED.

New-Brunswick, June 6 .- A sensational story was dreulated in New-Brunswick to-day that the entire classical section of the freshmen class of Rutgers had been suspended by President Austin Scott for an alleged "sloping" of an examination. It was said that the section cut a literature examination before Dr. Charles E. Hart at 11 o'clock on Friday morning and took a trolley ride to Militown, and that President Scott had suspended the students sending decision by the faculty on Monday. Dr. Hart this evening said: "The story is highly esserated. At the hour on Friday I was to have from the section a special examination on private radings. None of the class appeared on time. Like they came to me and told me that their regular work had not given them sufficient time for reparation and that they had all agreed to stay say. Of course they should have been prepared and their absence will affect their mark, but I accepted their excuse and arranged to give them a social hour next week. There have been no suspendent, the matter having been left entirely to he.

BLOOMFIELD.

ds are out for the wedding of Miss Sadie arrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Har-7. of this place, and Walter Bartlett, the cereony to take place June 24.

he marriage of Miss Gertrude Sigler and C. A. tady, jr., will take place next Tuesday evening. John H. Scott and Miss Grace Jacobus were marhed in the Verona Methodist Church on Wednesday the Republican Executive Committee of this town ave elected C. W. Powers president, Benjamin baskell vice-president, and J. H. Moore treasurer. Essex Hook and Ladder Company will hold their shual banquet at the American House on Tuesday

Lincoln Hook and Ladder Company, of Glen Ridge, ave elected J. A. Fattle president, W. R. Smith rice-president, J. I. Gregory secretary, W. T. Spentragent, T. Moritz foreman, and J. R. Zabristie assistant foreman.

The Rev. and Mrs. Frank J. Goodwin have been in Bethlehem, Penn, attending the wedding of their orge Selick sailed for Europe yesterday, to be n! several months.

JERSEY CITY.

WEEK MARRIAGES OF JERSEY CITY YOUNG PEOPLE-

TROLLEY PARTIES HELD AND PROJECTED-A SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY AND

Mrs. Helen Bromfield and Dr. V. E. Mitchell, of this city, were married Monday evening at the home of the bride, No. 1.145 Madison-ave., New-York City Miss Grace Bromfield was bridesmaid, and Willett married on Wednesday evening by the Rev. E. A. Meury. William Van Cleft was best man, and Miss Tillie Poehm bridesmaid. Only the relatives of the young couple were present.

Martin was best man.

Public School No. 1 Association gave their sixth annual dinner Wednesday night to Principal George

Mrs. Johanna Poehm and Harry Van Cleft were

N. Linsley, who taught them in old No. 1 more than forty years ago. There were present E. F. C. Young Clayland Tilden, George Warrin, George B. Fielder E. C. Garder, E. W. Perry, Dr. Gordon, Chauncey Holt, H. H. Farrier, D. R. Daly, John W. Harrise Thomas Leather, C. Zabriskie, W. W. Farrier and J

A large audience assembled in Hasbrouck Hall Tuesday night and listened to Frederick Warde, who portrayed several of Shakespeare's most famous

A "silver entertainment" will be given soon by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

The Bachelor's Club will hold their annual picnic in Pohlmann's pavilion next Thursday evening. The high school commencement will take place or Tuesday, June 16, in the Academy of Music. A reception will be held in Hasbrouck Hail after the ception will be held in Hasbrouck Hall after the exercises.

The Saturday Night Outing Club have arranged for an outling on Saturday evening next.

Christian Woerner Camp No. 1, Sons of Veterans, gave its fourteenth annual picnic and summernight's festival at Pohlmann's pavilion on Tucsday night.

A large party, composed of members of St. Michael's Club, journeyed to Elizabethport Monday evening by troiley, and were entertained by the St. Patrick's Y. M. C. L. there.

The Pallsade Literary Association will give a troiley party next week.

There was a strawberry festival Tucsday night in the Tabernacie. The Ladies' Aid Society had charge of it.

of it.

The women connected with the Lafayette Reformed Church gave an entertainment Thursday night. The programme included a strawberry feast and tableaux.

St. Bridget's Hall was the scenariosal Wednesday. Vednesday evening, which marked the r Marshall W. Van Winkle has returned from a trip to St. Louis.

The Rev. Cornelius Brett and his family will summer at Mantaloking.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Perkins will spend the summer at their cottage in the Berkshire Hills.

RUTHERFORD.

The Rutherford Harriers gave a whist party their clubhouse in Chestnut-st, on Friday night, Company 1, 2d Regiment, will celebrate its third universary by a lawn party at Randolph's Grove on June 22.

The Rutherford Cyclers will have a club run to Great Notch, by way of the Valley Road to Mont

A meeting to incorporate Rutherford Hose Com pany No. 1 will be held at the house of Union Truck and Bucket Company to-morrow night. This organigation, the fourth of Rutherford's volunteer fire companies, will be composed of business men who are in town during the day, the other fire companies eing composed largely of commuters.

Dabinett's Band, under the leadership of Charles Dabinett, began its series of free Saturday evening concerts at the bandstand in Depot Square las assisted by Miss Madeleine Shirley and Mr.

M. Casta, vocalists.

Miss Estelle S. Jupp, daughter of Myron Jupp, has received an appointment as a teacher in the Rutherford schools. Miss Jupp will graduate in a few days from the State Normal School.

The Ladies Ald Society of the Rutherford Raptist Church gave a strawberry festival at the church on Thursday night, those who took part including the Misses Irene Lepage, Clara Lawton, Clara Kreitz, Madeleine Shirley, Isabella Doyle and Mrs. M. Casta.

Casta.

The tenth anniversary of Engine Company No. 2 was celebrated by a dinner at the Park Avenue Restourant on Tuesday night. Councilman Andrew H. Teeple, the newly elected president of the company acted as tosstmasier. The affair was arranged by Mayor E. J. Turner, J. C. Shenek and F. E. Rogers. The Bergen County Board of Freeholders will visit Rutherford on Tuesday to consider building a bridge over the Passate River at Union-ave. The members, after visiting the proposed location of the bridge, will be entertained at the Union Club house.

HOBOKEN.

Mrs. John Stevens, of Castle Point, gave a dinner at Naegell's Hotel last Tuesday evening to the choir of Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, in recognition of the services of the singers at the dedication of the baptistery, which was erected in memory of John Stevens, Among those who made speeches were the Rev. George C. Houghton, C. B.

Clark and Miss Effic Stewart. Miss Clara Hart, daughter of Lewis Hart, of No. 212 Washington-st., Hoboken, and Michael B Union Hill, were married by Rabbi Karasch in the presence of a large company at Quartet Club Hall in Washington-st. Wednesday evening. A reception followed the ceremony.

A "family album" entertainment was given at the First Methodist Episcopal Church, in Washington-st., in connection with a strawberry festival or Tuesday evening, under the auspices of Epworth League Chapter, No 18. Miss Kate Howard was reader, and explained the different exhibits in the "album." cond Hoboken Company, Boys' Brigade, elected the following officers last week: Captain, G. Mort Pollard; first sergeant, George Mehrtens; second sergeant, Harold Howe; third sergeant, John Peters; fourth sergeant, Fred Mehrtens; first corporal, ters; fourth sergeant, Fred Mehrtens; first corporal, M. Schermerhorn; second corporal, Arthur Gardinier; third corporal, Charles T. Anderson; fourth corporal, Romeo Leonard.

Elysian Council, No. 26, L. A. B. A., celebrated its second anniversary at Quartet Club House on Tuesday night.

S. S. Middleton and his family, of No. 739 Bloomheid-st., will spend the summer at Mount Tabor.

Mrs. A. B. Richardson, wife of the pastor of the First Methodist Church, is in Ocenta, N. Y., where she is visiting her daughter, Mrs. I. H. Rowe, who is ill.

is ill.

Ex-Councilman William J. Winges, of Hoboken, will sall for Germany next Tuesday.

Miss Louisa Beckers, of No. 1,022 Garden-st., and John B. C. Bartlett, of New-York, will be married next Wednesday at the home of the bride.

MATAWAN.

Miss Low Whipple, of New-York, is the guest of Miss Ada Lamberson, in Main-st. Miss Fairbanks, of Newark, has been visiting Mrs. W. G. Bedle in Broad-st. John Masterson, of Jersey City, has been visiting

J. A. Walling in Midway Green Miss Fielder, of New-York City, is the guest of Mrs. M. V. Simpson in Main-st. The Misses Strong, in Upper Main-st., entertained the Misses Bartlett, of New-York City, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Barnart, of Asbury Park, have been spending some days at the Methodist parsonage.

Mrs. G. L. MacDonald, of New-York City, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Ryer, in Main-8t.

Hillard Low and his family, of Brooklyn, have moved into their summer cottage in Mountain-ave.

SUMMIT.

"Only a Woman's Heart," a four-act drama, wapresented in Music Hall, Hotel Beechwood, on Monday evening. Ex-Governor George Hoadly, of Ohio, is staying at Hotel Beechwood.

A lawn fete will be held at the residence of William B. Denning to-morrow afternoon for the benefit of the Arthur Home for Destitute Children.

The Catholic Temperance Societies of New-Jersey have elected the following officers to serve one year President, the Rev. Father Charles T. Kelly, of Hoboken; vice-president, James H. White, of Summit; treasurer, Miss Suiltvan, of Trenton.
Mr. and Mrs. Horatio W. Garrett satied for Europe on Wednesday. A reception was given to the graduating class of St. George's Hall in Casino Hall last evening by Professor and Mrs. Hartman Naylor.

The annual fair for the benefit of the Summit Fresh Air and Convalescent Home will be held at Casino Hall on the afternoons and evenings of June 11 and 12. The patronesses are Mrs. Henry L. Pierson, Mrs. Ashton Harvey, Mrs. William H. de Forest, fr., of Summit; Mrs. William R. Deen, Mrs. Henry S. Leavitt, and Mrs. James R. Pitcher, of Short Hills.

A dance was given in Music Hall, Hotel Brech A dance was given in Music Hall, Hotel Beechwood, last evening.

The Town Committee met on Tuesday evening in the Township Hall and awarded the contract for laying the sidewalk on Springfield-ave to Van Steenberg & Clark, of Newark. It was decided to equip the members of the police force with bloycles. Freeholder William H. Swain addressed the committee and complained that county roads were being cut up without authority, and threatened the members of the committee with indictment by the Grand Jury if it occurred again.

The Church Musical Society held a musical in the parish house of Calvary Episcopal Church on Monday evening, their last meeting of the season.

Augustus Watters will give a recitation of "The Bolis" to-morrow evening at Music Hall, Hotel Beechwood.

NEWARK.

RIED STATE.

DETAILS OF ELABORATE WEDDING FESTIVITIES IN A NUMBER OF HOMES-SUMMER TRAVELS IN THE MOUNTAINS AND TO THE SEA

OR ACROSS THE OCEAN.

Blanchard, and Julian Hazelhurst Walter, of Charleston, S. C., were married Wednesday in the Central Methodist Episcopal Church. The bride wore a gown of white satin, with chiffon and pink satin ribbons. Immediately after the ceremony dinner was served at the Blanchard home. best man was B. F. ushers were Charles H. Haig, of Charleston; W. T. and B. F. Beardsley, the Rev. Paul Fitzgerald, E. Allcock, Carl Sutphen and Harry C. Blanchard. Miss Minnie Brangs and Frank Everett Sherwood f Newton, were married on Wednesday at No. 235 Roseville-ave., by the Rev. Dr. Tuttle, of Roseville Methodist Church, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Sherwood, of Newton. Miss Lida Brown was maid of honor and Miss Meta Barckhauser, of Jer sey City, was bridesmaid. The best man was Willtam Vreeland

John Keay and Miss Martha M. Carnwright were married on Wednesday night at the home of the bride's parents, No. 109 Summer-ave., by the Rev. W. C. Snodgrass, pastor of the Centenary Methodist Church. Charles Andruss was best man and Miss Mamie Wissmer was bridesmaid. The ushers were John Mungle and William Keay, brother of the bridegroom.

ces Irene Heery took place Wednesday night, in St. Patrick's Cathedral. The bride wore a gown of mousseline do soie over taffeta, and a large white sister of the bride, and Harry King was best man. The ushers were Edward Fay, Edward Quigley, William Murray and Frank Canfleid. After the eremony a reception was given at the home of the bride, No. 122 Academy-st.

The wedding of J. Wilford Keener and Miss

Mabel Russ, of Roseville, took place at noon Thursday, at the Peddie Memorial Church. The Rev. Dr. Edward Judson, pastor of the Memorial Baptist Church, South Washington Square, New-York, offidated. Miss Gertrude Cadmus was bridesmaid and Samuel Keener, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. H. Cadmus Russ and A. Reading were ushers.

e-morrow evening to continue through the month A fair for the benefit of the Home for Crippled Children was held Thursday at the home of James A. Hanister, Roseville and Sixth aves.

A special meeting of the Kindergarten Club held Wednesday at the home of Miss Merry, No. 19 Lombardy-st. Business was confined to arranging lists of names of people to whom circular letters are to be sent. The letters solicit practical aid for establishing free kindergartens.

The Heethoven Choral Society gave its last concert of the senson in the Sixth Presbyterian Church Wednesday, under the leadership of its conductor, Louis Carroll Beckel. The chorus was assisted by Miss Hessie Mcklem, saxophonist; H. C. Mcklem, harpist, and E. Leon Rains, barytone.

J. W. Smyth and his daughter will spend August at Interlaken, Switzerland.

Mrs. C. B. Yardley, Miss Yardley and C. B. Yardley, jr., leave July 1 for their country home, Lake. Sunagee, N. H. Mrs. C. B. Yardiey, Miss Yardiey and C. B. Yard-y, fr. leave July 1 for their country home, Lake unapper, N. H. Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Ogden Fitzgerald are at Mt.

arope this month, william Clark and Miss Mary Clark have gone to William Clark and Miss Mary Clark have gone to Miss Ambelger to spend two months of travel in page to spend two months of travel in page to Ireland.

Mrs. R. S. Porter and Miss Jennia M. Porter have gone to Cape May Point, where they are occupying their cottage.

The family of G. W. W. Porter are at Avon-by-the-Set for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hartham and their family will leave the city on July 3 to spend the summer at leave the city on July 3 to spend the summer at ligadley Heach. Miss Annie Price will accompany

A. Milne, with others of his family, will so to the

A Mine, with others of its lamily, will go to the white Mountains, where they will spend the greater part of the summer.

The Misses Lottle Sheridan and Minnle Munday will go to Shelter Island Heights.

Miss Laura Van Court Ross, daughter of P. Sandford Ross, of No 75 Johnson ave. was married on Thursday to Henry Barremore Billings, of New-York, by the Rev Lyman Whitney Allen in the South Park Presbyterion Church. The bridesmaids were the Misses Gertrude Dedd, of Grange, American Personal of Many Version, N. Y. Gangeland, Miss. gowned in mousseline de sole, over cornicolored silk and wore Gainsborough hats of yellow straw, trimmed with plumes and band, with crushed roses. A reception was held at the house of the bride's parents after the welding. About four hundred guests were present.

MONTGLAIR

Miss Lida Cockefair and George W. Gefney, Newburg, N. Y., were married at the home of the bride's uncle, William H. Taylor, in Mountain-av.

On Tuesday evening Miss Emily, daughte and Mrs. Edwin S. Browe, and Percy Ellsworth Anderson will be married in the Upper Montclair C gregational Church. The bride will be attended by her cough, Miss Edith Browe, and Miss Anne Anderson, sister of the bridegroom. The maid of honor will be Bertha Andruss, a little girl of five. The best man will be Robert Vail, of Philadelphia, and the unhers Herbert Barber and John Murray, of Brooklyn; Oscar Jeffries, of New-York, and Robert Anderson and Philip Hubbard, of Upper Monicialt. The reception will be held at the Gedney home, in A series of secrets of secrets.

Mountain-ave.

A series of evangelical services will be held next week by Miss Sarsh Carson, under the auspices of the Montelsir Christian Endeavor Union On Monday and Friday evenings Miss Carson will speak at the Congregational Church lecture-room, Tuesday and Thursday evenings in the First Presbyterian Phapel, and on Saturday an open-air service on Bloomfeld-ave.

The Altanet Saturday

Chapel, and on Saturday an open-air service on Bloomfield-ase.

The Altruist Society wil, soon begin the weekly fresh-air picules which have been held for several years every Thursday in Lindenmeyer's Grove, in Orove-si. There are generally fifty or sixty children and a number of women and older girls in each party, and unlimited sandwiches, cake and milk are provided, and each has a generous sauser of fee cream. It was at first attempted to have special picules for boys, but so many complaints from residents were received that the boys, save very young ones, were left from the programme.

The final meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held to-morrow afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. parlors. The meeting will be resumed in the fall.

The annual hospital fete will be held on the ath-sumed in the fall.

The annual hospital fete will be held on the athetic grounds on June 23. Healdes the usual attractions, there will be special features which have not tet been announced.

yet been announced.

The Rev. W. N. Hubbell, who has just resigned from the pastorate of the First Haptist Church, will spend the summer with his family in the Berkshires. Mr. Hubbell says that he will not take another charge for several months.

Mr. Hubbell says that he will not take another charge for several months.

A strawberry featival for the benefit of the uniform fund of William H. Areson Post, Sons of Veterans, will be held on Thursday evening, Jane II, in the vacant store at Park-st, and Bloomfield-ave.

The Montelair Military Academy has been holding its final examinations, which will be continued into next week. The commencement exercises will be held on Thursday evening, and T. Wesley Wright, George S. Bryan and Herbert C. Bradley Wright, George S. Bryan and Herbert C. Bradley will receive diplomas. Hamilton Mabie will deliver an address, after which there will be an informal reception and dancing.

Mrs. C. W. Butler entertained at luncheon on Wednesday the Montelair members of the State Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animais. The guest of honor was Colonel E. S. Edwards, the secretary of the State Society.

BELLEVILLE.

Miss Anna Sterritt, of New-st., will represent the Bristian Endeavor Society of the Reformed Church it the Washington convention. The women of St. Peter's Church gave a strawberry featival on Wednesday evening. Father Brown, of Paterson, delivered an address Essex Hose Company admitted to membership on Tuesday evening Samuel Ryno and John W. Depue, naking 100 members of the local fire department elebration was had after the regular business meetng, attended by nearly all the members of the local companies. The Graduatee' Society met in the assembly room of the high school on Thursday evening. Several new members were elected, and musical selections were rendered by Misses Grace Mackaye and Daisy Gordon and Messrs. Work and Jeroleman.

The Chautaqua Society met on Monday evening at the residence of Samuel McCawley. Papers were read on "The American Indian" and "Modern Emotions."

read on The American trions."

The women of Christ Church will give a lawn fâte on the church grounds on Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

At the mexing of Passaic Hook and Ladder Company on Monday George F. Sanford received his exempt certificate. This is the second exempt certificate Sanford holds, and he is said to be the only man in the State having exempt certificates from two branches of the service.

ELIZABETH.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS OF THE MANY YOUNG PEOPLE ENTER THE MAR- MEN AND WOMEN AT THE ALTAR OF HYMEN.

> THE HONEYMOON RISES SERENELY OVER MANY HOUSEHOLDS IN ELIZABETH-VARIOUS EX-CURSIONS BY TROLLEY-CAR OR OCEAN STEAMER.

Harriet Elsie Weeks, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Weeks, was married on Wednesday night to Allan Hudson Church, of Bergen Point, by the Rev. Otis A. Glazebrook, in St. John's Episcopal Church. The church was decorated with palms and daistes. The maid of honor was Miss Lucy Carnes Weeks, sister of the bride. The bridesmaids were Miss Edith M. Hinds, Miss Laura V. Ricketts, Miss Pauline Darroch, Miss Catherine M. Olmstead, Miss Frederika Suydam, Miss Bernadine Russell Edson, of Elizabeth; Miss Adelle J. Southard and Miss Edith Booth, of Bergen Point. The best man was Edward A. Weeks, brother of the bride. The ushers were Hoffman Kissam Reynolds and Wilbur Paret, of New-York; Charles Bestwick, of Ithaca; Lawrence Van Buren, of Plainfield; Sidney L. Smith and Thomas D. Day, of Bergen Point; Hamilton W. Weeks and William Percival MacKenzie, of Elizabeth. After the ceremony a reception, at the home of the bride's parents, in Monroe-ave., was attended by several hundred guests. Both the bride's grandmothers, Mrs. Leyal S. Pond, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Mrs. Edward A. Weeks, of New-York, were present. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. L.

123 Orchard-st., Tuesday evening, their daughter, Cassle, was married to Theodore Boulton. bridesmaid was Miss Lottle Boulton and the best man was B. Kinsley. The ceremony was per-formed by the Rev. F. S. Simmons, assisted by the Rev. W. B. Wigg. Mr. and Mrs. Boulton gave a reception after the wedding, which was attended by over 100 guests, from Newark, Trenton, Sparta, Flemington, Roselle, Lorraine, Staten Island, Stanton, N. J., and Elizabeth. Mr. and Mrs. Boulton will spend the honeymoon at Niagara

Dr. Charles Edward Holton, of Roselle, and Miss May Fleming, of this city, were married on Wednes-day evening at the home of the bride by the Rev. S. Simmons, of the Park Methodist Episcopal Church. Only their immediate friends were present at the wedding.

Miss Mary Cunningham and John Reitmeyer, the newly elected Assistant Fire Chief of this city, were married in St. Mary's Church Tuesday afternoon. Many friends witnessed the ceremony and attended the reception afterward at the home of the bride in Wall-st.

Miss Ella Cosgrove, of this city, and John J. Butler, of Philadelphia, were married on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock in St. Patrick's Church here. The bridesmald was Miss Winifred Cosgrove, a sister of the bride, and the best man was William J. Dunn. The Rev. Martin Lessner performed the ceremony, which was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Dora Cosgrove, No. 68 South Park.

Ex-County Clerk William M. Oliver, of this city, will sail for Antwerp by the Red Star line next will sail for Antwerp by the Ref Star line next Wednesday. He will be accompanied by Edward W. Ward, of this city.

St. Michael's Society, of Jersey City, came to Elizabeth in three trolley cars Monday night, accompanied by a band and a number of friends, and were guests of the Young Men's Catholic Lycoung St. Patrick's Church. The visitors were entertained with bowling, dancing and a supper. The feature was the bowling match between the young women from both parishes, which was won by the Elizabeth girls. girls. tependent Order of Odd Fellows, in this satistic Rivarian in the line of the filling will celebrate the memorial day of the order will celebrate the memorial day of the order attending the First Protestant Methodist Church lay, and will listen to an address by the Hev. W. Trout. All the lodges in Elizabeth will meet Odd Fellows' Hall and wearing their regalial march in a body to the church.

I sail for Ireland, June E. Mr. Rea is a veterant was read member of Judson Klipatrick Post.

Strawberry festival was held last week in St.

Strawberry festival was held last week in St.

Tick's School Hall, under the auspices of the ling women of the parish. It closed Wednesday that Miss Maggie Donohue got the prize for last the most tickets.

night. Miss Magge todoline selling the most tokerts.

An enjoyable entertainment was given at the Park Methodist Church Chapel Wednesday night. There were vocal soles by Mrs Simmons, recitations by Miss Martha Pitcairn, sole by Spencer Smith, Plano dues by Miss Townley and Miss Hinke, Instrumental and violin soles by Mr. Pisher and Prafessor Checkher.

An illustrated talk on natural history was given in Orace parish house Thursday night by Franklin 8 Smith, who exhibited about 150 pictures, most of them taken from 15c.

sken from life, e hell for St. Paul's Chapel, in First-ave, tyed from Meneley's foundry, in Troy, and placed in position as soon as the belfry is ramatic entertainment in aid of Elizabeth's Labrary was given Thursday night at the blic Library was given Thursday night at the ne of Mrs. Simpson, No. 53 North Broadst. is Plays," "A Hox of Monkeys" and "My Uncle's were eleverly produced by the following atterns Henry O Barber, Arthur A. West, Miss a Browerton, Miss Mary A. Barber and Miss revost.

c M. Littell and her niece, Adam Helne, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schnieder Europe yeaterday, and will make a tour cand Switzerland.

PASSAIC.

PASSAIC.

Miss Trina Bakalaar and the Rev. James F. Van Houton, pastor of the Christian Reformed Church, were married Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride in Passaicest. The Rev. G. A. Harring, of the bride in Passaicest. The Rev. G. A. Harring, of the bride in Passaicest. The Rev. G. A. Harring, of the bride in Passaicest. The Rev. G. A. Harring, of the bride in Passaicest. The Rev. G. A. Harring, of the bride in Passaicest. The Rev. G. A. Harring, of the bride in Passaicest. The Rev. G. A. Harring, of the bride in Passaicest. The Rev. G. A. Harring, of the performed the ceremony. The bridesmalds were performed the ceremony. The bridesmalds were the maid of honor was Miss Trina Witte. Edward the mald training departments of the East Orange, the deferron on the general subject of University of the Young Men's Christian Association was leaders. Class he the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Swain Brown Decora-tion Day and last Sunday and Monday, at their summer home, the Hermitage, in Worcester, Mass. They left Friday night by the steamer City of Lowell, and returned Tuesday morning. The Misses Corinne Wise, Beatrice Hart, Mae Perrin, Rose Perrin, Louise Mercur, E. Farrington and Sarah Gardiner, and E. W. Stevenson, Ford H. Dow, Heratie K. Gardnier, E. Irving Carr, Washington Hart, Kingsbary Nickerson, William Willard, H. Jackson, J. Hay, John Keane, B. Cromise and R. Ellison, will present Gilbert and Sul-livan's opera, "Trial by Jury," at the Passate Club, June II. W. Werts, of Paterson, will be the ac-

June II. W. Werts, of Faterson, will be the accompanist.

Mrs. Byron D. Halsted died in New-Brunswick ast Tuesday. Mrs. Halsted was the sister of Dr. Charles M. Howe and Mrs. David Carliste, of this city. The funeral was held Thursday.

The High School Cadets held a competition drill at their last May drill. Commandant James C. Shearman and Captain H. M. Ross, and Lieutenant W. H. Poremus, of Company D. of the National Guard, gave medais to Sergeant F. Smith, Corporal H. Hoschand and Private C. Howe.

C. H. Soule, M. P. Slade, C. H. Bickel, E. W. Berry, W. P. Shelp, E. W. Guiterman and F. H. Crane, returned last Sunday on their wheels from Milford, Penn, by way of belaware Water Gap.

The courts of the Passaic Lawn Tennis Club were officially opened Saturday.

Mrs. Adrian Sullivan and her children have gone for a three months' visit to Des Moines, Ia.

Mr. and Mrs. George Arnold sailed for Germany on Wednesday.

for a three months visit to be a solice.

Mr. and Mrs. George Arnold sailed for Germany on Wednesday.

W. F. Davis, general secretary of the Passalo Y. M. C. A., left for Cieveland, Ohio, Thursday, to attend the International convention of Y. M. C. A. general secretaries.

NEW-BRUNSWICK. The Useful Circle of the First Methodist Sunday-school held a lawn sociable on the grounds of Edward M. Vail at Codwise-ave, and Redmond-st., op Wednesday evening. Supper was served, and the Sunday-school orchestra rendered music. The graduating class of St. Agnes's Academy underwent final examination this week. The class numbers seventeen. The commencement exercises will take place on the evening of June 17. Three weddings took place in New-Brunswick on Wednesday. Miss Estelle C. McDowell and John Chamberlain, of Cranbury, were married at high Miss Sara Zimmerman and J. Alfred Van Nest were married at the bride's residence at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. At 7.45 o'clock in the evening Miss Lillie Buydam and William Lee Burt were married in St. John's Methodist Episcopal Church. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents.

bride's parents.

Miss Elizabeth Cannon and Arthur Bishop were married by the Rev. P. T. Porkman on Thursday evening in the First Reformed Church.

The school children of North Brunswick township will celebrate Public School Day in Parsons's Grove on June 12. County Superintendent N. Brewster Willis and the Rev. C. S. Miller will make addresses.

A vaudeville performance was given in Allen's
A vaudeville performance was given in Allen's Theatre on Friday evening for the benefit of J. E.
Starkes, manager of the theatre. The affair was managed by a committee of citizens, including Vandertvit S. Voorhees, August Streitwolf, Howard MacSherry, Louis A. Voorhees, Edward Taylor,
William J. McDede and John Van Norden. The grounds surrounding the home of Peter W. Fick, in Livingston-ave, were brilliantly illuminated on Thursday evening, the occasion being a social under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. James's Methodist Episcopal Church.

THE ORANGES.

THE SEASON OF WEDDINGS AND EN-GAGEMENTS.

SEVERAL NOTABLE MARRIAGES IN THE WEEK AND OTHERS ANNOUNCED-OUTDOOR AND INDOOR DIVERSIONS AND SUMMER

JOURNEYINGS. The women at the head of the Domestic Training Association announce an entertainment in aid of that institution on June 17 in the shape of a fete champetre, which is to be held on the lawns of Mrs. William Henry Williams, in Essex-ave. There are to be all sorts of surprises and enjoyments for the young people in the afternoon, and in the evening there is to be an outdoor play acted by a number of amateurs of recognized ability. The evening will close with a dance. The preparations are being made on an extended scale.

Mrs. John Burke, of Llewellyn Park, gave one of the largest lawn and garden parties of the season at her place yesterday afternoon. The grounds were elaborately decorated, and over seven hundred invitations were out. There were archery, croquet, tennis and all other outdoor sports, and tea and other refreshments were served on the wide spreading lawns, while the Hungarian Band played throughout the afternoon. In the evening there was a dinner party for forty guests, followed by a dance. At the home of Mrs. Henrietta Rice, No. 35 Harrison-st., East Orange, on Wednesday evening, her daughter, Miss Grace Anita Rice, was married to Lee A. Struck, of East Orange. The house was elaborately decorated with flowers. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Alexander N. Carson, of the Brick Presbyterian Church of East Orange. About one hundred and fifty guests were present. There was no best man and no maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Bessie Rice, a sister of the bride, and Miss Jennie Rice, a cou The bride wore white satin, trimmed with pearls and point lace, and carried white roses. Mr. and Mrs. Struck left on their wedding trip after the reception and will live in East Orange.

Miss Maude Marie Barnum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raiph Edward Barnum, of No. 60 Carnegieave., was married to Ray Southard Cummings, of West Orange, in Christ Church, East Orange, of Weinesday evening. The church was elaborately decorated. The ceremony was performed by the rector, the Rev. William W. Davis. The best man was Clarence Williams, of Orange, and the maid of honor was Miss Lizzie Cummings, a sister of the bridegroom. The bridesmaids were Miss Adeline New-York; Miss Amy McGall, of West Orange; Miss Eugenie Scott and Miss Helen Wheeler, of East Orange. The ushers were James Kissam, of New-York; Clifford E. Moore, of Brooklyn; Ernest L. Baldwin and Edward Jones, of East Orange. The bride wore white satin, trimmed with luchesse lace and pearls, and carried a bouquet of white orchids. A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride in Carnegie-ave., and later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Cummings left on their wedding tour. They will live in East zation, opened its grounds in Cleveland-st. on Decoration Day with a club tournament. There were ration Day with a club tournament. There were a large number of entries, the play was sharp and at the close of the sets the women served tea and a social time was enjoyed.

The closing exercises of Dryad Hill School were held last Tuesday. A play, written by Miss Anna N. Benjamin, the assistant principal, was performed by a number of girls on the lawn. A staging had been huilt and only natural scenery was used, lit with Japanese lanterns. The play was "An Awakening on Mount Olympus," a classical modern drama, in which a number of gods and goldessee, the "Cholmandely-Joneses of London" and "Miss Georgetta Hinks of Chicago" had parts. "An Awakening on Mount Olympus," a classical modern drama, in which a number of gods and goddessee, the "Cholmandely-Joneses of London" and "Miss Georgietta Hinks of Chicago" had parts. The characters in "Olympus" were assumed by the Misses Elizabeth Close, Nataline Crampton, Anna N. Benjamin, Harriette S. Lawton, Edith R. Lewis, Mary K. Dumbell, Edith H. Waite, Mae Munger, Fanny H. Coolidge, Frances S. Benjamin, Essy pumbell and Ethel Ford, and the tourists were the Misses Ruth Warren, Eva Kavanaugh and Katharine Roberts. The play was enthusiastically received, and may be published. After the presentation refreshments were served in the house, and the young people danced.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Nina Byron, daughter of George G. Byron, of South Orange, to C. William Sioane, of New-York. The wedding will take piace in the last week in June in the Church of Our Lady of Sorrows, in South Orange, and immediately afterward Mr. and Mrs. Sloane will sail for Europe to spend the summer in Continental travel.

W. Lewis Fraser, art manage.

Magazne.

The Rev. Dr. Anthony Schuyler, the venerable rector of Grace Church, Orange, who has been so seriously III for two months, is now convalenting.

Miss Maud Shirley Perry, of East Orange, an artist of some repute, has sailed for Europe to spend some months in study in France, Belgium and Majard.

and Holland.

Mrs. Harrison Whittingham, of West Orange, has taken one of the Cooper cottages at Long Branch, and with her daughters, the Misses Rogers, has gone there for the summer.

liranch, and with her daughters, thus gone there for the summer.

Mrs. Marlotta B. Loverlige and Mr. and Mrs. Ludiow Patten loft on Monday for Milford, N. H., where they will spend the summer, in the old homestead of the Hutchinson family.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Dill, of Harrison-st., East Orange, have gone with their family to their summer cottage in Huntington, Long Island.

The engagement is announced of Miss Leah Letson Sale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sale, of Caryst., Orange, to Frederick Friedlin, of Portamouth Va.

ARLINGTON AND KEARNY.

Annex Hose Company, No. 3, of Arlington, gave an exhibition on Thursday night. The company of twenty-six firemen, in command of Foreman E. Von Steeg, ran out 200 yards measured, uncoupled the hose, taking off four lengths, tapped the fire designated spot in exactly fifty seconds. company is considering a challenge to any company in the State. The West Hudson Republican Campaign Committee was organized in Matthew's Hall, in Midlandtee was organized in Matthews Hall, in Midland-ave., Arlington, on Thursday night, by leading men of Kearney, Harrison, East Newark and Arlington. Robert Orrok was elected chairman and David Al-mond, jr., secretary. Permanent organization and sub-campaign committees will be chosen immedi-ately after the St. Louis Convention. The annual meeting and election of officers of the King's Daughters of the Arlington Presbyterian Church will be held to-morrow in the home of Mrs. S. B. Dutcher, in Beech-st. King's Daughters of the Arlington Presbyterian Church will be held to-morrow in the home of Mrs. S. B. Butcher, in Beech-st. Captain John O'Brien, the commander of the Ber-muda, has returned to Kearny, where he has leased a pleasant home in Berlin-st. Mr. and Mrs. Burrill, Miss May Brock and H. B. Lawrence left Arlington yesterday for a two weeks' trip to St. John, New-Brunswick.

BAYONNE.

The Ladies' Sodality of St. Henry's Roman Catholic Church held a strawberry festival in St. Thomas's Hall on Thursday evening. The marriege of Miss Helen Noel Meigs, daughter of ex-Mayor Henry Meigs, to the Rev. Bishop Faulkner, of Bay Ridge, Long Island, will be solemnized next Tuesday evening in Trinity Episcopal Church.

A farewell reception was given on Thursday ing in the rectory of Trinity Episcopal Church for the Rev. Haroia Arrowsmith, the retiring rector, and his wife. It was under the auspices of the Woman's Parish Aid Society. Having accepted a call to a parish in Lenox, Mass., Mr. Arrowsmith will leave town with his family this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Luke W. Richards, of Avenue E. are entertaining their daughter, Mrs. Alma Martinez, of Boston, Mass. Superintendent John L. Thomson, of the Orford

Superintendent John L. Thomson, of the Orford Copper Company's establishment at Constable Hook, has returned from a tour through Europe.

Miss Dalsy Thompson, a recent graduate of the high school, and Edward J. Darvell, the New-Jersey Athlette Ciub's cricketer, were married on Tuesday evening in the First Presbyterian Church by the Rey Henry W. F. Jones. The bride was given away by her uncle, S. M. Wilson. Sne was not attended by any bridesmaid. The bridegroom's best man was J. Edwards.

The reading room of the Free Public Library will be closed on Sundays from to-day till September 27.

The Bergen Point Methodist Episcopal Church Sunday-school has chosen the following officers: Superintendent, Francis E. Thompson; assistant superintendent Mrs. Phillips; secretary, Harrison F. Thompson; Ibrarians, Kndrew Chamberlain and Henry James; organist, Miss Florence Fryer; treasurer, Arthur Kirkendali; missionary secretary, William A. Fryer; missionary treasurer, E. Somerset.

For the benefit of the day nursery, a musical and literary entertainment was given in Columbus Hall on Friday evening by local entertainers.

PATERSON.

WEDDINGS IN THE HOME AND AT THE CHURCH.

BRIDES AND BRIDEGROOMS OF THE WEEK-MER PLANS OF PATERSON PEOPLE-RE-CEPTIONS AND SOCIAL MEETINGS.

A lawn party, with prettily illuminated grounds excellent music, a gypsy paimist, an interesting ex-hibition of X rays and other attractions, were given on Tuesday evening by the Young Mens' Class of the First Baptist Sunday-school. The remaining comrades of Companies C and K.

13th Regiment, New-Jersey Volunteers, with their, wives and daughters, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Crowell on Tuesday evening, at their residence

Miss Mary Hendrickson salled for Europe

Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eastwood gave a party on Tuesday. evening to Miss Marie Leaf, in their home. About fifty guests were present. Having completed a year's service as house physician at the General Hospital, Dr. Homer Sylvestee has gone to his old home in Wisconsin.

Friends, numbering a score or more, tendered Mrs. Cornelius Lees a birthday surprise on Tuesday evening, at her home in Ellison-st.
Mrs. Hoffman's studio in the Romaine Building was the scene of a conversazione and art exhibit yesterday afternoon. The fourth anniversary of the Paterson Co tory of Music was celebrated in Association Hall on Thursday evening. The members of the vocal department who gave numbers were Mrs. Charles Eddy, Miss Belle McCrame, Miss Millie Westbrook and Miss Alice Barton; from the instrumental departs ment, the Misses Julia Reid, Fannie Ackerm

Laura Taft, Annie Croft and Messrs. George Bens and William Ackerman.

The managers of the Old Ladies' Home held their annual "sewing bee" and lunch party on Wed day afternoon. Miss Mattle Kinsilla was married Wedne norning at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Kinsilia, in Fair-st., to Walter B. Acker man, by the Rev. Dr. Shaw, of the Second Presby-ferian Church. Miss Sue Ekings and Albert Driscoll, of Williamsport, Penn., were in attendance. The bride wore a travelling dress. Only a few friends were present.

were present.

Miss Maud Barteau and John W. Matthews were married on Tuesday afternoon by the Rev. Mr. Conover, of the Hawthorne Church. Miss Ethel Scott was bridesmaid, and Robert Matthews was groomswas bridesmaid, and Robert Matthews was groomsman.

Miss Maud Chadwick, of Spring-st., gave a reception on Wednesday evening, for her guest, Miss Florence Phillips, of Youngstown, Ohio.

Miss Ida Distler and William Goble were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Distler, River-st. The Rev. Dr. Shaw officiated. The bride wore white silk trimmed with rare old lace and carried brideroses. Miss Annie MeDonald was bridesmaid, Willelam McKee was groomsman and Edward Kuhn and William Wagner were ushers.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stone and their family have taken a cottage at Ryle Park for the summer.

Misses Helen and Leila Griggs, daughter of Governor Griggs, are spending the summer at Newtoa, N. J., with their aunt, Mrs. Elia Leighton.

The marriage of Miss Ella Bianche MacDonald and Charles H. Stagg, was celebrated at the bride's home, in Garrison-st., on Wednesday evening. The Rev. William Eakins, of Grace Church, performed the ceremony. Miss Blanche Van Houten lei the march, as flower girl. The bride's dress was of white satin, duchesse and chiffon, trimmed with pearls and silver spangles. She wore diamonds.

A reception will be given to-day to announce the engagement of Miss Jennie Feder and Joseph Liry at Miss Feder's home in New-York. A number of people from Paterson will attend.

MORRISTOWN. Miss E. Elizabeth Dana will go abroad for the summer. Miss Nella Wilder is travelling in Europe with

Mr. and Mrs. Beekman Remington are at the Wal-ton cottage for the summer. The Misses Grannis, of Morris Plains, entertained a party at cards last Monday afternoon. There will be music and dancing every Friday evening in June at the Golf Club. Mrs. Forbes and Miss Edith Forbes, of Madison ave., left town last week to spend the summer is travelling.

travelling.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Albion Fanshawe and the Misses Brice have gone to Miss Colbath's for the Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Day will sail from Southamp-on for home on the Fürst Bismarck on June 12 The engagement is announced of Miss Lillian Beverly Chew, of Geneva, N. Y., to Augustus L. Revere erly Chew, of Geneva, N. I., which is city.

The Misses Evans and Miss Nina Willis were home from boarding-school last week, and an informal dance was given by Mrs. Willis for their friends.

Bathburn will sail for Europe next.

dance was given by Mrs. Willis for their friends.
Charles A. Rathburn will sail for Europe next month, and expects to spend three menths wheeling on the Continent.
A reception was given to the graduating class of
'96 of the Morristown High School by the principal,
W. L. R. Haven, at his home in Mt. Kemble-ava, on heat Tuesday evening.
John B. Ayers and his family will spend the summer at Belmar, where they have taken a cottage for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Ayers rode to Elizabeth on their wheels Wednesday, and from there went to Belmar by rail. After riding through Belmar, Ocean Grove. Asbury Park and Long Brunch they again took the train for Elizabeth and thence home by wheel.
Mrs. George G. Frelinghuysen, Miss Hopkins, Mrs.
Rudolph Kissel, Mrs. Richard A. McCurdy, Mrs.

Mrs. George G. Frelinghuysen, Miss Hopkins, Mrs. Rudolph Kissel, Mrs. Richard A. McCurdy, Mrs. Henry W. Miller, Mrs. M. Tilden and Mrs. Wyant Vanderpoel are patronesses for three musical matter to be given, under Professor Curtis's and Gustave Kobbe's direction, at Mrs. Miller's home on Wednesdays, June 19, 17 and 24.

The regular annual souvenir concert of Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Young's music school will be given at their studio in Park Pace on Wednesday evening, June 17. A musical and reception will also be given in the afternoon of the same day for Miss Jane Dobbins. Professor and Mrs. Young and Miss Laura B. Phelps, violinist, will take part in both prognummes.

PLAINFIELD. The Rev. and Mrs. E. M. Rodman celebrated on Monday their golden wedding anniversary. Dean Rodman is rector of Grace Episcopal Church in this city, and on the anniversary night the members of the congregation gave him and his wife a reception. Mr. and Mrs. Rodman received the sts in the guild room, which had been decorated with hothouse plants and sweet-scented flowers. A purse of gold was given to Mrs. Rodman by the women of the congregation. The following clergymen were present: The Rav. Messrs. Yerkes, Barnes, Lowery, Newell, Richardson, Schenck, Love, Taylor and Ferguson, Refreshments were served during the evening by the Helping Hand Society and the Misses McClure and Reinhard served lemonade. Miss Mary E. Thorne and William C. La Rue, of New-Brunswick, were married on Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mra. at the home of the brace's parties.

Edward Thorne, in East Second-st., by the Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes. Miss May Thompson, of East Orange, and Miss Edna Carson, of North Piatnefield, nieces of the bride, acted as flower girls. A supper was afterward served to the guests. The bride's Sunday-school class of ten girls acted as waltresses.

supper was atterward served to the guests. The bride's Sunday-school class of ten girls acted as waitresses.

Iv. J. A. Coies, of Scotch Plains, has written a letter to President Patton, of Princoton, in which he says: "In appreciation of the mu'uai regard which for more than fifty years existed netween the trustees, faculty and instructors of the College of New-Jemey and the late Dr. Abraham Coies, our father, my sister and I will take pleasure in giving Princeton University Randoif flogers's magnificent lifesize marble statue of Nydia. belonging to the estate of our father." The statue was made of the best Carrara marble in Rome, Italy, in 1856. Several copies of it were subsequently made. One was at the Centenniai Exposition and another in A. T. Stewart's collection. The one which Dr. Coles and his sister now offer to the university is the original, Mr. Rogers, it is said, received $3,500 for it, and it cost nearly $1,000 more to land it safely in New-York. It has been carefully preserved, and its value has been enhanced with time.

The Rev. Hobart Clark, of All Souis' Unitarian Church, will leave his present charge and go to one of the New-England clites, He presented his resignation last Sunday. Mr. Clark said that his connection with the church had always been pleasant, but that he was desirous of a change.

The Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards, pastor of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church, will lediver the address at the commencement exercises of Elmira-College, on June 10.

Among the business men of New-York who have recently made Plainfield their home is Frederick W. Perry, of No. 51 Williow-ave. Mr. Perry is a director and the resident manager of the new United States Cheque Hank, and it is understood contemplates establishing a sub-agency in Plainfield Mr. and Mrs. Perry have already made many friends in their new home.

A public meeting of the Town Improvement Association will be held next Friday at 4 p. m. is the Young Men's Christian Association rooms.

ENGLEWOOD.

Walter Mackay, eldest son of Donald Mackay, of Vermilye & Co., is seriously ill with typhold fever, Miss Jennie Mackay ver recently recovered from a similar attack. An elaborate musical programme has been pro pared for the entertainment at St. Paul's Parish House on June 12. The well-known violin and plane players, Miss Dora Valesco Becker and Mr. Becker, of New-York City, will take part.

C. B. Platt leaves next week for Europe to join his son, D. Fellows Platt, who is pursuing the Princeton University archaeological researches in the vicinity of Rome.

the vicinity of Rome.

Class Day exercises of Dwight School were held on Friday evening. Eight graduates took part in the programme. They were Miss Fellowes, Miss Reid. Miss Knox, Miss Fitschen, Miss Davidson, Miss Demarcat, Miss Leggett and Miss Palmer. The usual commencement exercises of the class of '94 will be held on Tuesday evening, at which Hamilton Mabie will deliver the address.